More details about the Choral Festival on Aug. 6 – if you choose to participate:

- The snow in the picture is real.
- Sing from your own Faure Requiem score which I'll pull from our stacks.
- Come at 1:30 PM. Workshops at 2 PM. Faure rehearsal at 4 PM.
- Bring your own snacks. A light supper of finger sandwiches and cookies (included in the price of $60) will be offered at 5:45 PM in the parlor area.
- Dress code for the chorus is black bottoms/white tops. Concert starts at 7 PM with organ selections first, then the choir assembles in the balcony to sing the Faure.

New Music Office

Thank you to Dom Tralli of the Property Committee for painting the new Music Office, aka Music library room. I will hurry to make it presentable before all the musicians come here for the Choral Festival. The Purple Room is no more, but has morphed beautifully into Pastor Cindy's office.

They've auditioned and assigned the roles! Performance dates are

Friday, Nov. 18 and Sat., Nov. 19. Stay tuned for rehearsal info from Marty Hennum, director, and Jean Nelson, music director.

Summer Sing - Schubert's "Mass in G" will be performed at the Union Congregational Church (UCC) in Peterborough on Weds., Aug. 24. Bev Caldon will be the organ accompanist, with Dr. Matt Leese, directing. We have scores in our library if you want to borrow one to sing with YouTube. Maybe you would carpool? Flyer and schedule are on the next page.
